Flashback '85

Sponsored by MR. JACK TOOHEY

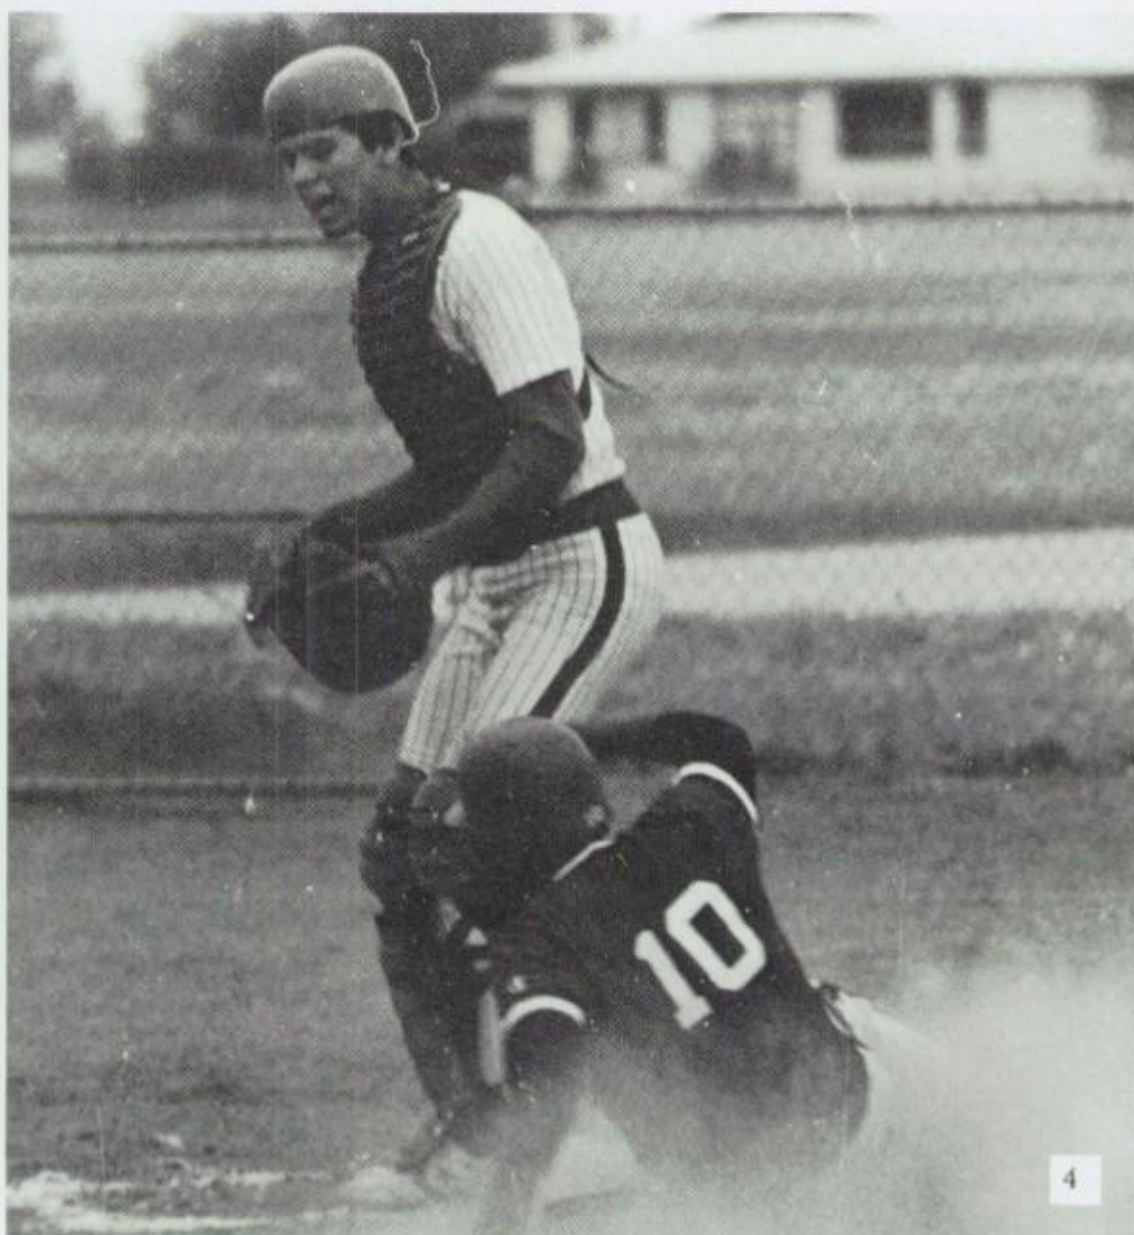

Think back to the Spring of 1985. There were a few activities that kept our spirits afloat. Consider for a moment the play "Barefoot in the Park," which was organized by Mrs. Lee; the Yearbook signing dance, put on by the sophomores; and the always memorable prom set up by the juniors. Spring sports consisted of: softball coached by Mrs. Villareal; baseball coached by Mr. Reese and Mr. Osborne; and the boys and girls track team coached by Mr. Toohey and Gloria Reese.

Flashback '85

1. Bart Smith and Shandine Maines portrayed their characters well in the play "Barefoot in the Park." 2. Lori Duncan, Benny Miller, David Miller, and Jessica Mavis have the time of their life at the '85 Prom. 3. During a Ramette softball game, Leslie Hulse and Raychel Kakar horse around. 4. Mighty Ram player Robert Miguel slides to home plate.

April 20, 1985 was a special night for MHS students, the '85 Jr/Sr Prom began at 8:30 at the Best Western Inn in Tempe. The theme was "Always and Forever" and the room was decorated in a rainbow of colors. Music and videos provided by Paramount Sight-

N-Sound. "Barefoot in the Park" was one play that kept our spirits up. It was something new to our students. It was mostly about a couple having problems in their new home with people dropping in all the time. The cast was much smaller than the play "Horror High" put on two years ago. The MHS track team was quite successful last year. Six boys and four girls qualified to compete at the state meet. The boys were: Anthony Ware — relay, Stephen Garza — relay; Wayne Simpson — relay; Paul Poor — relay, high jump, long jump, discus; Raul Vega — 100m. hurdles; and Bobby Ahrendt — shot-put. The qualifiers for the girls team were: Tracie Hudspeth — long jump; Beatrice Gomez — long jump; Elma Bandin — 200m. dash; and Lisa Stalker — 300m. hurdles and high jump.

1. Michelle Hornketh and David Stambaugh pose for a picture at the prom. 2. Getting a little shut-eye before a track meet, is Flora Bandin. 3. Ram player Danny Starr swings for the ball during a home game. 4. Enjoying a special night with his date at the prom is David Marlar. 5. The juniors presented the seniors with a cake at the prom. 6. Delvan Gonzales hits the ball during a home game. 7. The Ramettes head back to the locker room after a tough game.

The baseball team had a lukewarm season. They missed going to the playoffs by one game. The crucial game against Seton was lost when, tied in the ninth inning, they went into extra innings and Seton scored two runs.

The softball team was third in the conference and missed going to the playoffs by one game. That game was a loss to Seton in a two inning overtime when Seton scored two runs. Adella Peters and Leta Valles were named to all-conference.

Flashback '85 prom, play, & sports

Maggie Casillas works on a portrait of her favorite heart throb, Rick Springfield. 8. Runner Flora Bandin does the 800 meter race. 9. Bill Powell amid prom decorations. 10. Sacrifice play by Idrissi Maldonado brings Delvan Gonzales home. 11. Talented artist George Compton is absorbed in his drawing. 12. Lisa Stalker flies over the low hurdles at the Superior meet.

Organizations

he various organizations on the M.H.S. campus kept much of the student body involved.

They fall into several categories. In the sports category there are the Letterclub, and Cheer Squads. Spirit-raising is the goal of the Pep Club and the Ramband. Concerned with community service are the Student Council, Boys' & Girls' State, Amerind Club, and the S.A.D.D. Chapter. Yearbook, and the Rambler Newspaper Staff handle journalistic tasks. Extracurricular organizations are: National Honor Society, Speech and Drama, Spanish, F.F.A., F.H.A., and Computers.

Among this year's clubs a new one has been very effective — the S.A.D.D. Chapter. Originally formed last year in response to a tragic accident which killed an M.H.S. alumna. S.A.D.D. stands for Students Against Drunk Driving. Over half of the student body is active in the club.

Student Achievers

The yearbook staff decided to feature three outstanding seniors, and tell you of their special talents.

Steve Gibson, a musician, plays in the Ram and Jazz band. Interested in music since the age of nine. He plays a variety of instruments including piano, trombone, and tuba.

Steve enjoys playing classical music most. Other band projects of his include: Arizona All State Band, and the Arizona Wranglers Marching Band.

He has received five scholarships for his musical abilities, and his future goals include majoring in the performing arts at ASU.

The second person we interviewed was Shawn Gauld, talented football player.

Shawn, who was chosen for All 11 State first team defensive back, was also chosen as All Conference receiver and defensive back at the end of last year's season. He also attended a football summer camp in California, where he learned some of the higher fundamentals needed in football.

The people who influenced

Shawn the most were, Lynn Swann, and his mom and dad who helped him get through the rough times during his career.

Shawn's major goal is to play up to his abilities and come out a winner. After high school he plans on attending a junior college for a couple of years, then trying out for a team.

The third person we interviewed was Shandine Maines.

Shandine speaks out in public, and thinks competition of any kind is great. When she came to MHS and found the two of them together, she had to join. Shandine enjoys more serious, somber, shocking plays for drama; and oratory in speech.

Shandine gets involved in the material she uses. She says in order to get people feeling what she is saying, she has to feel it herself.

In the state, overall she placed in the top 14 orators and also in poetry. This year Shandine hopes to place in the top 5, and make it to the finals.

Shandine plans on continuing with speech and drama in the future.

1. Steve Gibson, trombone player, holding his instrument 2. Steve playing a tune from his trombone. 3. Shandine putting the final touches on a speech. 4. Shawn patiently awaits the snap of the ball. 5. Shawn full of spirit just before the first game. 6. Award winning speech-maker Shandine Maines prepares to give a speech.

Watch Out Annie Oakley!

Horses are definitely Lisa Stalker's thing. She rides all English, western, and gymkhana. Having lived around horses all her life and being in the 4-H horse club for 6 years makes Lisa quite experienced. She has qualified for State for 3 years; riding in 19 classes total (12 for the year of '85). If not convinced, then consider that in 5½ years she has accumulated 187 ribbons; and 4 trophies, a cooler blanket for her horse, and a reserve ribbon all for high point in gymkhana.

"My favorite is jumping and gymkhana, but I lean more towards gymkhana; that's what my Arab likes best and she should know. She's got lots of ability, style, and speed," claims Lisa.

Lisa recalls a scary incident from the National show, "I was showing English and I was leaving the ring after finishing a jumping class when my mom told me to check my cinch. I jumped off my horse after not seeing it on either side knowing that couldn't be true. It had slid back but my saddle didn't.

I had jumped over 8 jumps, more-or-less without a cinch. I still placed 5th, much to my surprise."

"I owe a lot to my friends and of course a lot to my horse! Mostly I owe much of my accomplishments and successful riding to my mom because she's always there," says Lisa.

Now that's experience!!

The British are coming, the British are coming! Well, not really it's Lisa Stalker in a jumping class with her Arabian mare, Nazanda Tiya. She received a second place.

Fowl Play!

Thad Miller enjoys raising birds from parakeets, finches, cockatiels, and button quail in small birds; to doves, fancy pigeons, utility pigeons, several breeds of bantams, chickens, pheasants, and on up the scale to ducks, large chickens, and geese.

"It all started at the age of 9 when I convinced my parents I wanted to raise birds, which they reluctantly agreed to buy; thinking I would give it up in a few weeks time," says Thad.

He began entering birds in the State Fair; the first time to earn a merit badge for Boy Scouts. After winning blues on most of his entries he was encouraged to enter again, which he has done for the last 6 years.

"In case anyone wonders, my choice of a career will naturally involve birds; either as an ornithologist, veterinarian, or aviculturist, working in a zoo would be ideal," Thad remarks.

Mighty Seniors, Top Achievers

Being the top scholastic achievers is one thing Ben Snow and Tracie Hudspeth have in common. The other being that they both study best where it's peacefully quiet.

Ben adds that he'll listen to the radio to make the time pass faster. He also says that some school work comes easily, but there's a lot of hard work involved. If it all came easy there would be no need for school.

Do these "A" students have favorites? You bet! Tracie likes the colors purple, red, and black; and pineapple yogurt. As for Ben, he likes; pizza, top 40 music, the color blue, and basketball.

They also have hobbies too.

Tracie enjoys cooking and sewing, while Ben likes computers, mind games, and watching T.V. (preferably "The Cosby Show" and "Family Ties").

Both their future goals sound great. Ben wishes to attend college, and Tracie is going to become a certified public accountant.

People may call them brains or whatever, but they're just normal human beings that enjoy school.

1. Senior Pride! That's what Tracie Hudspeth has lots of. She is a high scholastic achiever and she earned that title by doing lots of studying. 2.  $E=mc^2$ . All through high school Ben Snow has studied a lot to become highly recognized as a scholastic achiever.

"Art" Arias

Art Arias began sketching Charlie Brown at the age of 9, but what has really impressed him is real-life figures such as; horses, cats, and other objects.

Art recalls the first movie that really inspired him, "I remember when I first saw Star Wars, I was impressed by the characters because their costumes really gave me an idea to draw. I wanted to see if I could make them look realistic on paper."

Art now knows that he can come up with an imaginary thing, visualize it, and then can translate it on paper.

"Now that I am a senior, I think I am going to leave my art as a hobby, like it's always been. It is now time for me to go out and face the real world just to see what becomes of me," states Art.

Great technique! That's what Art Arias has when he does his scenery oil paints.

Tears of joy for S.A.D.D. — Mrs. McBride, who is not just the librarian, but also a S.A.D.D. supporter got into S.A.D.D. when several students showed an interest in starting a chapter at MHS. Together they received information on how to make it a success.

"I feel strongly about the whole S.A.D.D. program. Youth is the "now" generation and I care so much about them. I want to be a part of their success as adults," states Mrs. McBride.

She also feels S.A.D.D. week was a success because they got students involved and raised the membership to over 80 members.

The future goal of S.A.D.D. is to continue to provide students with the strength they need to fulfill their dreams. S.A.D.D. will continue its membership drive and have assemblies on the subject of teenage drinking.

Their biggest goal will be the S.A.D.D. rally that MHS will host in April with approximately 10 other schools.

1. Insurance payoff smiles? Chauna Poor, Steve Gibson, and Lisa Mowery. 2. Crash em up, smash em up. Pauline Stoor and James Bruno act S.A.D.D. 3. Hit and run victim? No, 1st place S.A.D.D. costume winner Kim Rendle. 4. Seriously against drunk driving. Scott Kelly, Blessing Antone, Mr. Crawford, Mrs. McBride, and Mrs. Hogenes sign a public proclamation. 5. S.A.D.D. lineup, the contestants against drunk driving are Chauna Poor, Steve Gibson, Lisa Mowery, Kim Rendle, Cindy Marlar, Pauline Stoor, James Bruno. 6. Demolition derby actors, Kim Rendle and Cindy Marlar.

Athletics

Maricopa High School offers the students a small but fun variety of sports. We have our football, volleyball, basketball, baseball and softball. There has even been some talk of getting wrestling on the activity list again. This year's teams have done fairly well. Being as small as Maricopa's, we managed to pull out a good overall season. We've also had a Pep Club to cheer the teams on to victories, and help raise spirits during the painful defeats. The sports at M.H.S. are really perking up, and the teams are improving every year.

This season did not fulfill the plans and hopes of the team and coaches. All the ingredients were there but the team could not get consistent play from everyone at the same time. The Rams did have some great and exciting play this year including a gut-wrenching goal line stand against Gila Bend. The final game of the year is really when the stars shone, when the Rams of Maricopa delivered a crushing defeat to the Rams of Antelope. Even though the Rams record did not prove to be one of the best. Five senior Rams gave it their all to make the 1985-1986 season a success. Quarterback Billy Howe threw nearly 200+ yards in five of the nine games played. Scott Kelly is unique in how he excelled even though he was moved around a lot offensively all year long. Shawn Gauld had a fantastic year both offensively and defensively, including some key interceptions in the slaughter over Antelope. Stanley Antone, who anchored the Ram line, butted heads all four years despite a bad knee. Thad Miller really gave the defense something to shout about, by coming up with great receptions offensively.

Some returning Rams who will help build next year's Rams into state champs are lineman — Mark Bentley, lineman — Chico Flores, receiver — Matt Steger, defensive end — Mike Howe, linebacker — Stanford Lopez. These guys are expected to contribute to next year's team. The only problem the Rams may have, is in the quarterbacking position a lot will be resting on sophomore Matt Reese's shoulders, but we all hope the best for next year's Rams.

Ramettes fail to succeed

Disappointing season puts a damper on Ramettes spirits

The Ramettes, led by Seniors; Flora Peters (Captain), Raychel Kakar, Flora Bandin (Co-captains), Teresa Masaquaptewa, and Marina James, began their season on a low note. They lost their opener to Superior. The varsity team had to begin their season with a less advanced offense than all of the other teams on their division. They proceeded to lose their next two matches to Ajo. In the Phoenix Christian tourney the Ramettes tallied their first win against Scottsdale. During the second part of the season the Ramettes changed their offense to a 5-1, which is a stronger more complex offense. This offense gave them their next 4 wins. They ended the season at 5 and 13, and a tie for 5th place in their division. Because of the 5th place finish, Flora Peters was named to 2nd team All-Conference.

Rams third place striving for state.

The basketball season had not ended when this copy went to press.

"The 1985-86 Basketball season started off with a new coach and no one really knowing what the season would bring. About 30 players started the season.

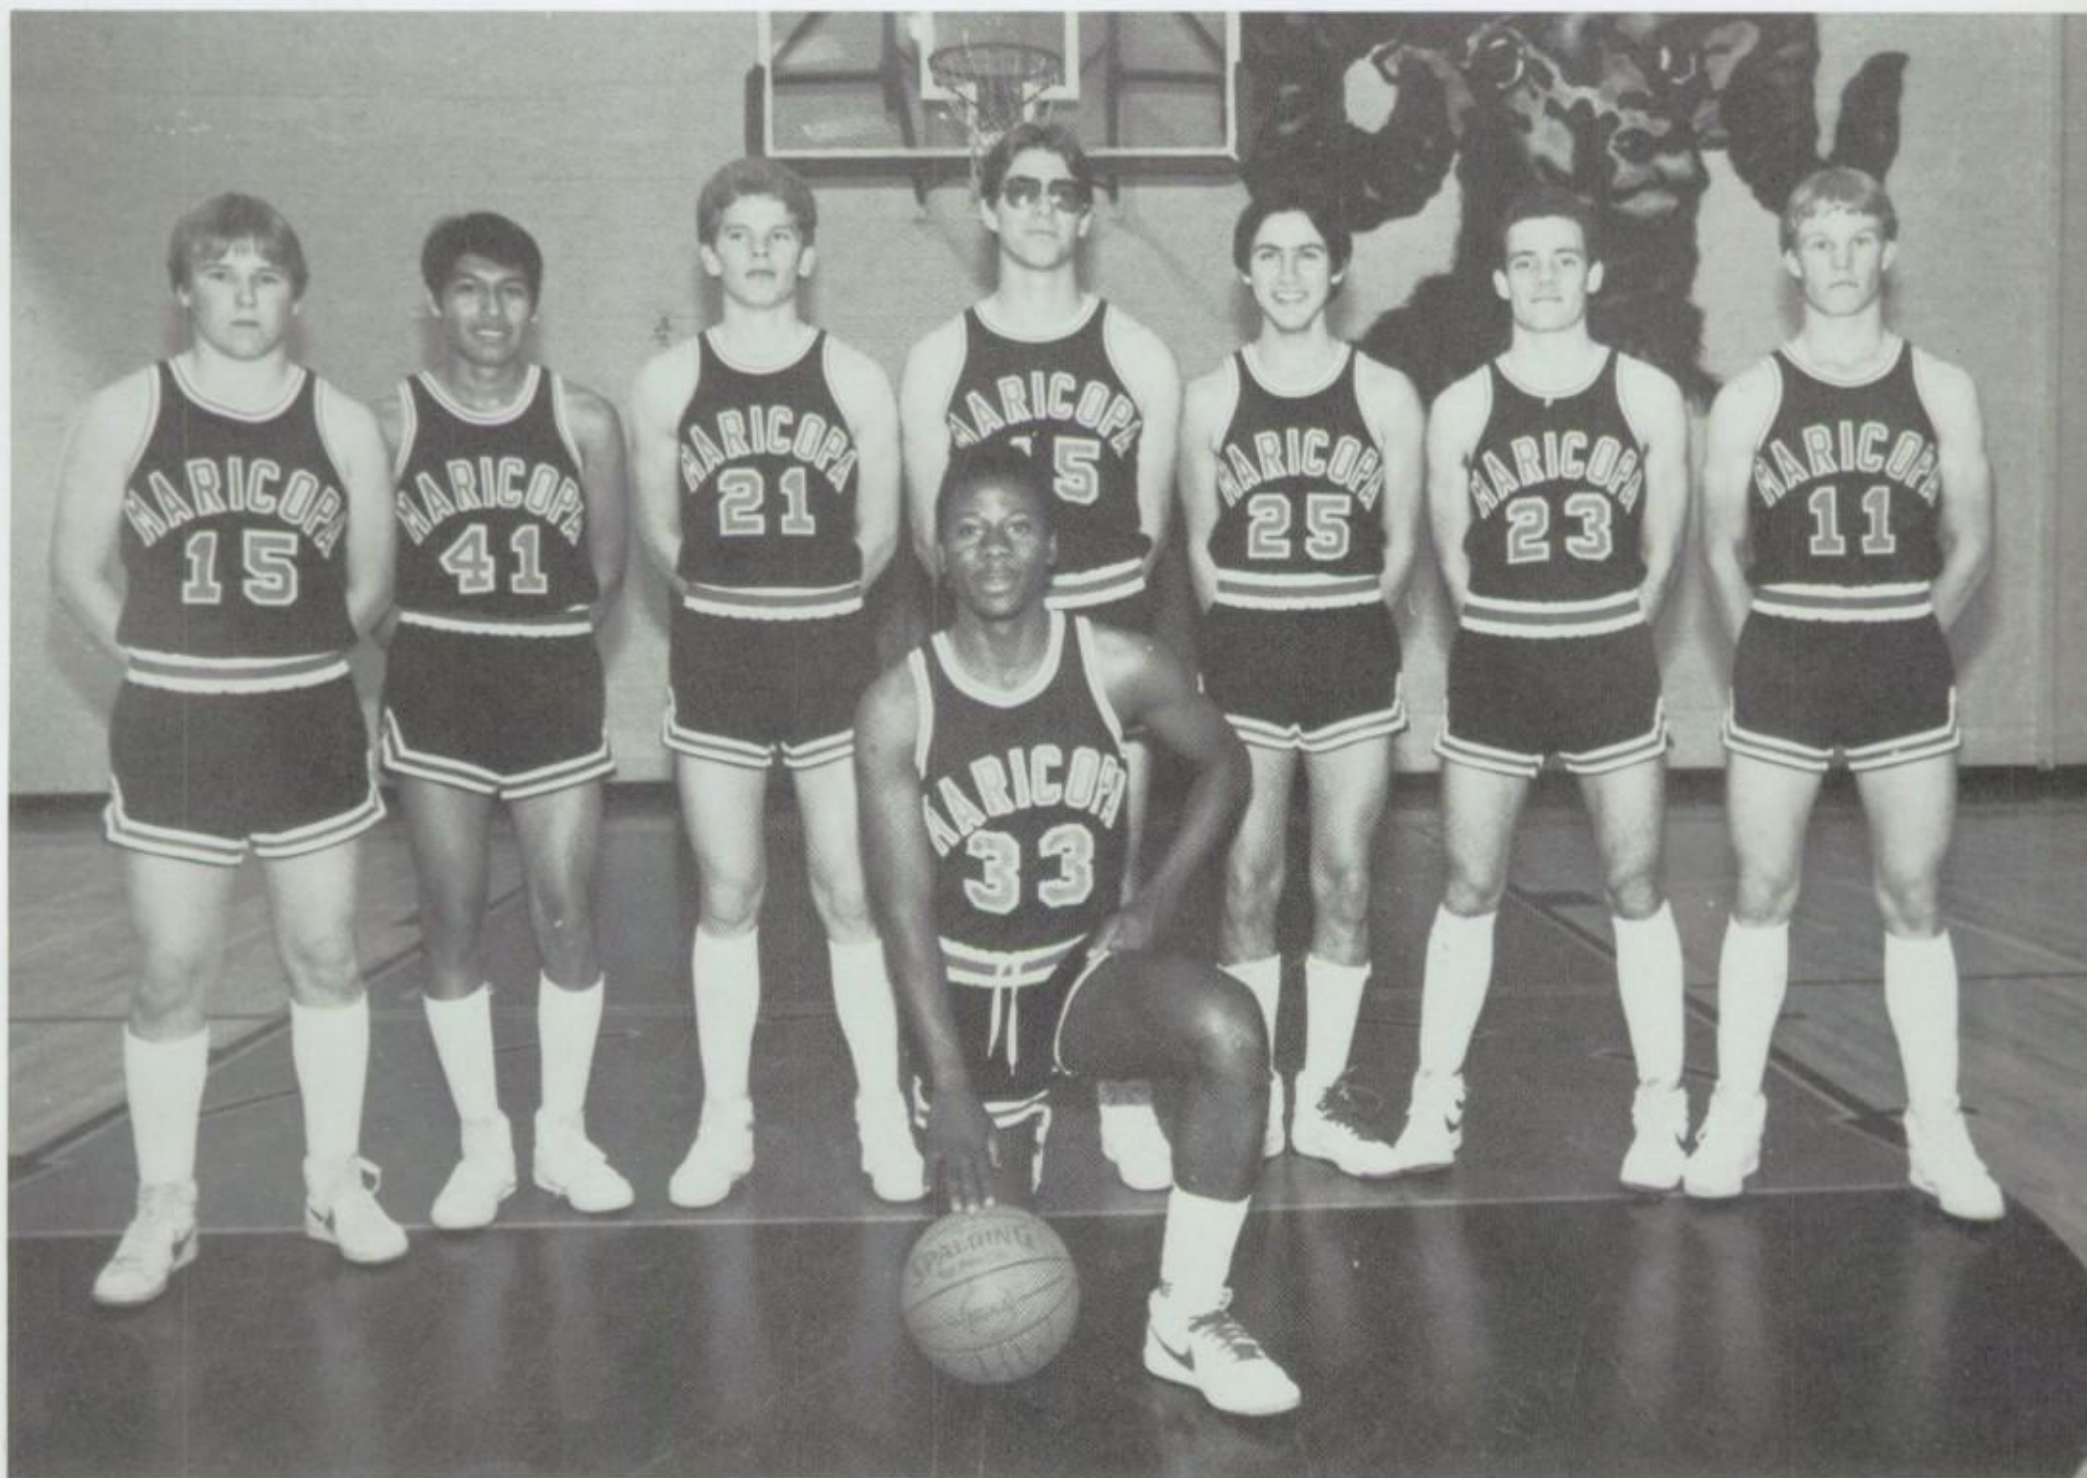

The Rams went to the Wrangler Classic at Wickenburg and finished second in the tournament. Anthony Ware was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

The Rams have been rated in state as high as third. They are second in the league with the senior endowed team. There is a good chance that the Rams could be in the State Basketball tournament."

The girls' team began the year with purely basic skills. The team grew and matured into strong, fundamentally sound players. They have transformed from being individualistic type players to team players. They have become competitive and confident. The attitude has changed and the team knows they can compete and win at this level.

Ms. Cardinal states, "There are twelve players on the team. Raychel Kakar is a guard. She brings the ball down and calls the plays. Roberta Barrera is one of the guards. She is my main shooter and has scored the most points. She is like an eagle always soaring higher. Flora Bandin is another of my guards. She is one of the most consistent on the team. She is a total team player. Leta Valles is one of my forwards and my top rebounder. Leta is the most improved player at the present time. Marina James is another of my guards. She has not seen much playing time, but she is always ready to come off of the bench and help the team. She is one of my least selfish players. Rhonda Oberg has come a long way. She gets angry at herself, but is always ready to come back even off of the bench to support the team. Michelle Rutledge began the season on a silent note only to become one of the key players with a bang. Kim Greer is a rookie sophomore. She hasn't seen much playing time, but always goes in to do some mean rebounding. Ann Antone is a freshman forward. I have great expectations from Ann. She is one of my top rebounders already. Cleo Pablo will eventually be one of my top guards. She is the most encouraging player on the court. Della Bandin is one of my high point scorers and is only a freshman. She will do well in the years to come. Chauna Poor is effective on defense and very supportive to the other players. I have watched them grow together as a team." The Ramettes finished with a record of 9-11. In the league their record was 8-5.

A National Tragedy

A Student Point of View

On Tuesday, January 28, a space shuttle mission was in progress. It was a usual mission except that a civilian, a teacher from Concord, N.H. was on board fulfilling a life goal to make space travel a reality to students across the nation.

She and six other astronauts were on their way into space for another mission of experiments.

Then tragedy struck, 1 min. and 48 sec. into flight the space shuttle blew up. As hundreds watched in horror, a big ball of fire consumed what was a second before, the space shuttle. The 25th mission of the challenger was the first failure of the program. People may say to stop space explorations, but that would put the deaths of the 7 in vain. Let's not take this as a step back, but a step forward to explore the infinity of space.

"I was sitting in class doing my work when one of the students listening to a small radio said the space shuttle blew up. Everyone naturally said you're crazy, but he had proof. He handed the radio to Mr. Kleinman, and as he listened, he told us what he had learned from the report. When 4th period came, I told Ms. Schall and she could not believe it until the whole class told her.

The bad news was official when Rex Brock announced it over the P.A. The class gasped, for it was true. Rex announced we could see it on T.V. in the library during lunch. After lunch, I and many students were in there to see the tragedy of the 7 heroic astronauts who gave their lives for the exploration of space."

Life on Campus

7 M-Mountain was a big success and everyone enjoyed themselves. It was well-organized fun. Following M-mountain we had our traditional initiation ceremony, where all freshmen dress up to look like anything from a housewife to a playboy bunny.

The evening of October 11, we had our homecoming game and during half-time we crowned our king and queen.

Our pep assemblies were all very active and involved the whole school.

One of the many traditions at M.H.S. is the voting of royalty for different events such as Prom, Homecoming, Valentine's and Carnival.

We have also taken a poll of different fashions and fads each year.

Life on Campus

1) Posh upperclassmen Norma Bustos and Robert Miguel are our 1985 Homecoming King and Queen.

2) Hairy legged cheerleaders? Scott Kingsland, Billy Hudspeth Shawn Gauld, David Freeman, Jeff Vanderford and Ralph Barazza make us laugh and cheer at a pep assembly.

3) Fathead freshmen dress as housewives and nerds to please the seniors requests.

4) A whitewash job is done on M-mountain by senior Billy Howe while LuAnne Adams watches how it is done.

Happy-go-lucky seniors, Robert Miguel, Anthony Ware, Delvan Gonzales, and Flora Peters show enthusiasm upon finally making it to the top of M-mountain.

Leaders at the top

The traditional painting of the "M" on October 10th was fun-filled and exciting, at least for the seniors. Everyone had a great time while they also had jobs to do.

Seniors, of course, were at the top painting the "M" while the underclassmen passed water up to them. Freshmen were also given the job of carrying up donuts and coke to sell to the seniors.

When finished with painting, seniors gave a loud cheer then began heading down the mountain, leaving the "M" glowing.

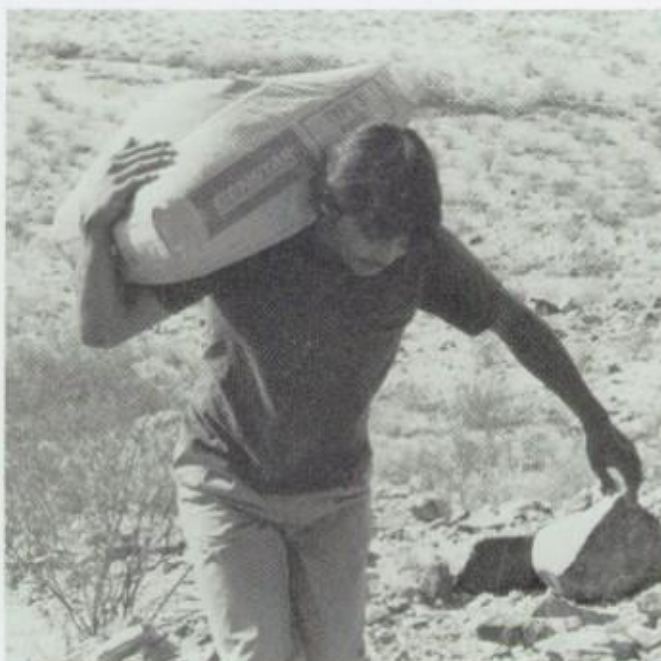

Are WE bad? Or are we BAD? Say seniors, Tracie Hudspeth, Leta Valles, Flora Peters, Teresa Masquaptewa, Raul Vega, Albert Hernandez, Flora Bandin, Wayne Simpson, Anthony Ware, Robert Miguel, Delvan Gonzales, Scott Kingsland, Scott Kelly, Art Arias, Shawn Gauld, Vicky Smith, Lila Bandin, Maggie Casillas, Lynn Spalding, Kim Rendle, Sandy Sauseda, Thad Miller, Billy Hudspeth, Stanley Antone, Billy Howe, Laura England, LuAnne Adams, Christina Olivarez, Marylou Herrera, Marcela Velasquez, Noemi Rico, Anni Barron, Tim Abbott, Lee Wilson, Juan Garza, Idrissi Maldonado, Ben Snow, Steve Gibson, and Raymond Villanueva.

Show-off seniors in M-mountain garb are Billy Hudspeth, Shawn Gauld, Scott Kingsland and Scott Kelly.

"Girl, you better not make me do this again," says Jesse Horsley exhaustedly carrying Raychel Kakar up the mountain because of her foot injury.

"I've got to make it," says Eddie Gomez out of breath, having to carry lime up the mountain for the seniors.

1. The perfect 10. Hector Sauseda flaunts himself during freshman initiation.
2. Silly Sally Arias suffers her initiation with grace.
3. Housewives par excellence, Adela Bandin and Maria Castro clean up for freshman initiation.
4. But, can it fly? Jose Hernandez submits to Bill Lacey's freshman humiliation.

Q. What's one reason the students look forward to being seniors?

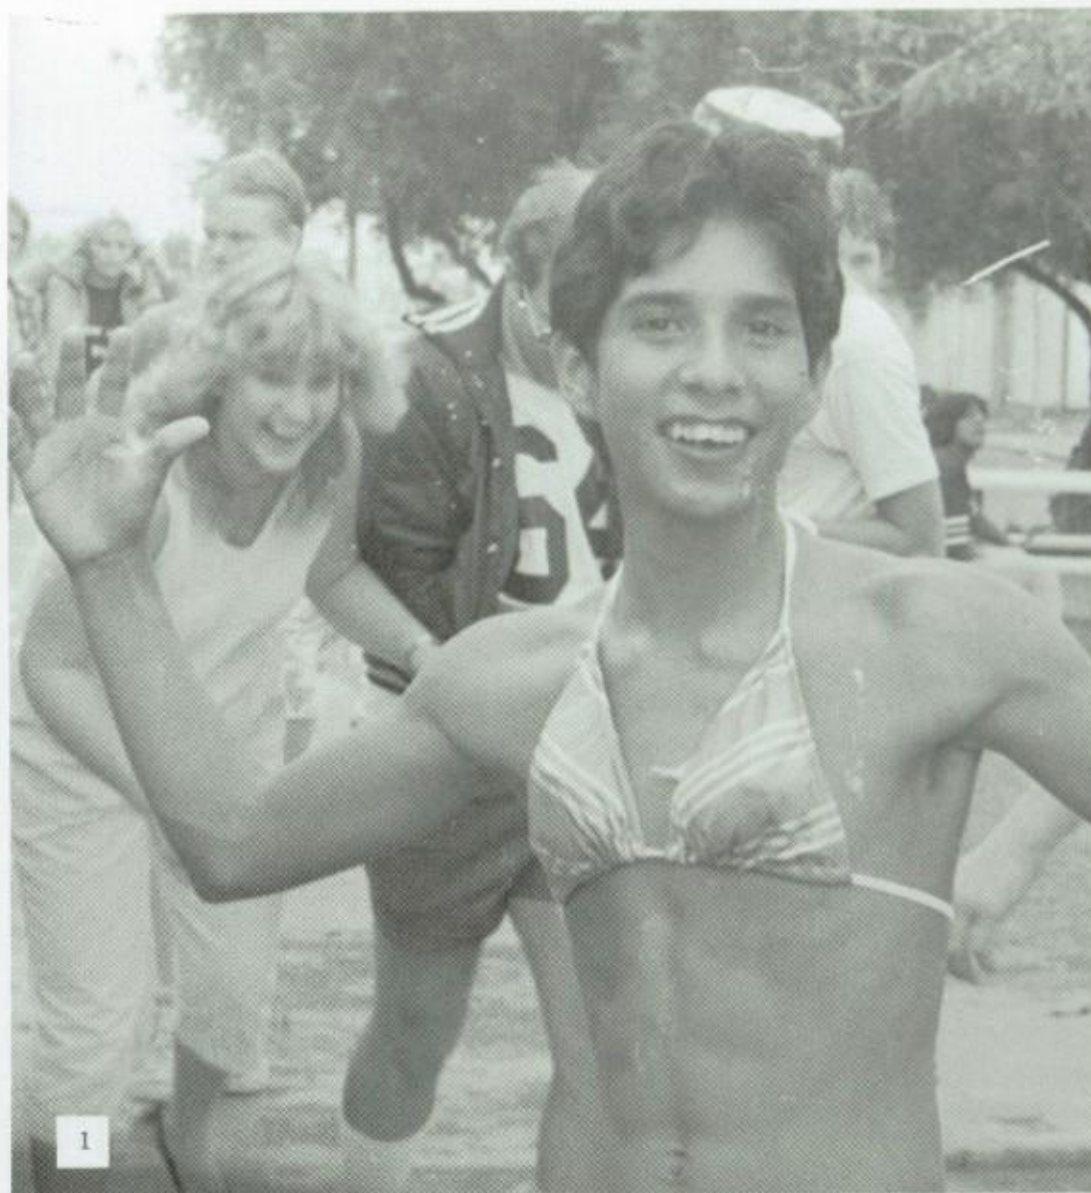

A. Freshman initiation.

It's the day the seniors welcome in the new students from the junior high. And the day the freshmen learn how fun high school can be.

The groups for this year were: playgirl bunnies, nerds and housewives. The highlight of the day was the girl housewives walk-in on the half dressed playgirl bunnies to inform them of the rain outside, which all the freshmen found out walking to the cafeteria to the dance. There they were given tasks such as carrying other freshmen on their backs, senior slaves, pushing pencils across the floor with their nose and the "roach" call, which was not their favorite.

Matt Reese got up on stage and sang to us "Another one Bites the Dust" and Chad Heald was a target for an exploding jelly donut.

When four freshmen, Kim Ethington, Julie Kingsland, Chad Heald, and Angie Horner were interviewed on their feelings about the day, they all had mixed emotions. But when asked if they wanted to have it eliminated, it was all the same reply, "NO."

Freshman humiliation?

Freshmen species Brian Howe, Walter Tow, Matt Reese, Chad Heald and Traci Short invaded and transformed into nerds, housewives, and playboy bunnies.

Freshmen with oomph! Matt Reese, Jody Grimes and Chad Heald strut their stuff.

Beany frosh, Brian Hudspeth, Mario Alvarez, Scott Miller and Lauren Brown don't let their funny looks get in the way of having a good time.

The 1985-1986 King & Queen and their court.

On October 11, 1985 the crowd was cheering, rowdy, and anxious to see who was going to be king and queen. At half-time, the crowd got their wish: junior Norma Bustos and senior Robert Miguel were crowned as the 1985-1986 Homecoming Queen & King.

Alumnus Rex Brock drove the truck that pulled the float. When Norma Bustos and Robert Miguel were crowned, they and the other candidates got on the Homecoming float and circled the football field.

After the game, MHS students went to the cafeteria to enjoy the sounds put on by Henry Perez and Anthony Ware at the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the senior class.

The Homecoming candidates were: 1. Seniors Robert Miguel and Lila Bandin. 2. Juniors Edmond Schrader and Norma Bustos. 3. Sophomores Ricky Bustos and Tina Pettes. 4. Freshmen Robert Mavis and Janie Norton. 5. Homecoming attendants were Seniors Anthony Ware and Kim Rendle. 6. Homecoming crown bearers were Nathan Arp and Teri Tow. 7. The Pep Assemblies were full of joy and excitement when the team really needed it. One of the many skits that the cheerleaders have done is the Thriller assembly. They made coffins and did an exciting routine to Michael Jackson's song "Thriller."

One of the students favorites was the guy cheerleaders. A few of the football players dressed up in the varsity cheerleaders uniforms and acted as they thought they would behave if they were girls.

Class competitions were the most popular event in the pep assemblies. Students often sat together by class and yelled their hearts out when their turn came. Teachers judged the loudest, most spirited class from across the gym. Sophomores showed the most spirit during football season.

Girls' Sports

The Jr. High Girl's Basketball team has done an outstanding job. The Varsity team had a 2-1 record. The Jr. Varsity had a record of 0-3 with the Semi-finals and finals yet to be played. Although turn-outs were small, the girls spirits were BIG. With only enough members to play and two substitutes for each team, the girls did their best to keep their grades up, to practice hard, and most important of all, "never give up." The girls should be congratulated for their efforts, they deserve it, for they proved to be true leaders.

Coach Gloria A. Osuna

The Jr. High Volleyball team had a good season. The 8th grade team, though small in numbers, did very well. There were only 9 players. They were: Shanna Baily, Corrina Bennuto, Cecilia Flores, Erika Handwerk, Talli Miller, Brandee Ralston, Leanna Romo, Kelly Sustaita and Kirsten Woodward. They made it to the finals with a record of 3 and 1. Even though they lost the finals, they should be proud of the way they played. They did an outstanding job all season. The 7th grade on the other hand was a large team. There were 17 girls on the team. They had a lot to learn. With 2 exceptions; the girls did not know how to bump or serve a ball. The girls tried and played very hard all season. They have learned a lot, even though they didn't win any games, their spirits were high and they were always good sports.

Jr. High Sports

The Maricopa Jr. High School Boy's Panther Softball Teams have finished regular season play and are now preparing for the championship tournament to be held at the end of January. The 8th grade team has an excellent chance of winning the trophy, and the 7th grade team can't be ruled out.

The 8th grade team is led by the pitching of Gabriel Rivas, the fielding of Pancho Bandin and the power hitting of Rodney "Thing" Antone.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

The Maricopa Junior High Student Council is a democratic organization which emphasizes leadership training for sixth through eighth grade students. We begin each year by sending our four elected student body officers to AAJHSC summer leadership camp near Prescott. In October of each year, the entire council attends a regional workshop. Then in the Spring we participate in the State Student Council Convention. During the rest of the year we endeavor to promote school spirit, enhance our school's image, conduct community service projects, and provide training for next year's upcoming leaders.

"Mr. Wright is a worm!"

No, he's a science teacher, but when his students saw him dissect a worm they became upset and picketed his room with signs and slogans such as "Worm Killer 1986" and "Free the Worms!"

This is no boring science class. Mr. Wright and his students know the secret to having a good time and learning too.

Helicopter pilot leaves Maricopa a buzz.

Mrs. Myer's third grade class makes a quilt every year, and raffles it off to raise money to go see "The Nutcracker Suite" ballet. This year they had the honor of a visit, by helicopter, of KPNX TV's weatherman Jerry Foster. He graciously bought a raffle ticket and then shook hands and signed autographs for starstruck students and staff. It was an exciting event for all.

1. Channel 12 helicopter hovers over Maricopa school.
2. A display of the raffled quilt is held up for a view.
3. Jerry Foster is greeted by Principal William Johnston.
4. Jerry Foster talks to the student body and staff.

Good Changes, Good Times

New lockers were set up in the second wing at the high school, so as to handle the overflow of new students here. That was a sigh of relief!

The Drivers Ed classes got a "1986" Escort to cruise around in, which, by the way, did have plush seats, an AM/FM stereo, and the always popular "Chicken Brake" in it.

The gymnasium got a beautiful, black, gigantic Ram's head painted on its wall to boost spirits and pride. It got many oohs and aahs from everyone.

Decorating the Homecoming float was an extra ordinary experience. It was so much fun to see a plain looking, flat-bed trailer blossom into red, white, and black streamers and balloons.

1. A singing trio, Cindy Marlar, Lynn Spalding, and Kim Rendle delight all at the Christmas band concert.
2. Ooh-pantful! would be the most anyone's reaction to the splits as shown here by Anna Moreno at a pep assembly.
3. Cheers to you! Debbie Tow, Lynn Spalding, Mrs. Marlar, Cindy Marlar, and Millic Lambrick toast the Homecoming float.
4. Synchronized. Ben Snow, Thad Miller, and Steve Gibson play to perfection at the Christmas band concert.
5. How natural can you get? Chauna Poor, Adelita Bandini, and Tracie Hudspeth give a "raspberry" to the photographer and to the end of a long school year.
6. Definitely "The Pride of Maricopa" is the Ram's Head in gym.
